

Group offers Garden Season 2025

For bus companies,
clubs and travel group organisers

The Gardens of Trauttmansdorff Castle cover an area of 12 hectares and are nestled into a natural amphitheatre with an altitude differential of more than 100 metres. This opens up impressive perspectives of exotic mediterranean landscapes as well as breathtaking views of the surrounding mountain ranges.

Much of Trauttmansdorff's uniqueness lies in its fusion of nature, culture and art – as evidenced by its ten Artist Pavilions, multi-sensory stations and spectacular blooming highlights in constant flux over the course of the seasons. At the very center of the Gardens stands Trauttmansdorff Castle where Empress Elisabeth of Austria, Sissi, sojourned. Since 2003, the castle has been home to the Touriseum, the South Tyrol's museum of Tourism, which invites visitors on an entertaining journey through 250 years of tourism history.

We are looking forward to your visit!
