

Top 5 in Spring

Spending just one day in Trauttmansdorff is hardly enough to see, experience, and discover everything. But these 5 spring highlights are an absolute must-see:

Tulip Splendor in Full Bloom

A sea of colors with thousands of tulips awaits you in spring! From radiant yellow to deep violet – the blossoms create a spectacular display across the gentle hills and Mediterranean terraces. The perfect setting for dreamy walks and unforgettable photos.

Palm Beach: A perfect Alpine-Mediterranean blend

Am I on the beach or in the mountains? Or... both? Enjoy the relaxing atmosphere of the Palm Beach as you marvel at the beauty of the snow-blanketed Texel mountains.

Playing with the Flipper at the Touriseum

A real gem of the Touriseum is the flipper game called "The South Tyrol Game". Over 10 m long, this wooden flipper, created by a Val Gardena sculptor, invites visitors to take a quick and amusing tour of South Tyrol.

The Rhododendron Slope in Full Bloom

A true festival of colors: in spring, the rhododendron slope shines in countless shades of red, pink, and violet. The blooming shrubs create an almost magical atmosphere.

Sun-Kissed on the Sissi Terrace

What could be more wonderful than enjoying spring with a view of the blooming Gardens? On the Sissi Terrace, warm sunrays await you – accompanied by the scent of the first spring flowers.
