

Exhibition - The future of travelling at the Touriseum in Trauttmansdorff Castle

What changes will travelling in the future bring?

The Touriseum in Meran cordially invites you to the opening of its innovative exhibition, “The Future of Travelling”, to be held in the stairway at Trauttmansdorff Castle. This unique exhibition offers a visionary investigation of how travelling might develop and grow in the 21st century and beyond.

Using AI images and illustrations, the Touriseum offers a glimpse into the future of travelling. This uncertain future comes to life, prompting reflection and even dreaming. Let yourself be inspired as you explore the possibilities and challenges of the coming age of travel.

“The Future of Travelling” presents a collection of creative short texts and their artistic interpretations that will challenge the limits of our imagination, all while offering realistic scenarios for the future of travelling.

From hypermodern means of transport to sustainable travel options and virtual travel experiences, the exhibition explores a variety of themes that might shape travelling in the coming decades.

We warmly invite you, the visitor, to discover the various aspects of the future of travelling as you climb the stairs.

The exhibition at the Touriseum in Trauttmansdorff Castle will run from 1 April to 9 November.

The opening will take place will take place on Tuesday, 1 April at 6 pm in the Deustersaal in the Touriseum in Merano.
